

TITLE I PARENT INVOLVEMENT (REGULATION)

In order to achieve the level of Title I parent involvement desired by the board of education policy on this topic, these regulations guide the development of each school's annual plan designed to foster a cooperative effort among parents, school, and community.

Guidelines

Parent involvement activities developed at each school will include opportunities for:

- Volunteering;
- Parent education;
- Home support for child's education;
- Parent participation in school decision-making

The school system will provide opportunities for professional development and resources for staff and parent/community regarding effective parent involvement practices.

Roles and Responsibilities

1. Parents

It is the responsibility of the parent to:

- Actively communicate with school staff;
- Be aware of rules and regulations of the school;
- Take an active role in the child's education by reinforcing, at home, the skills and knowledge the student has learned in school;
- Utilize opportunities for participation in school activities.

2. Staff

It is the responsibility of the staff to:

- Develop and implement a school plan for parent involvement;
- Promote and encourage parent involvement activities;
- Effectively and actively communicate with all parents about skills, knowledge, and attributes students are learning in school and suggestions for reinforcement;
- Send information to parents of Title I children in a format, and to the extent practicable, in a language the parents can understand.

3. Community

Community members who volunteer in the schools have the responsibility to:

- Be aware of rules and regulations of the school;
- Utilize opportunities for participation in school activities
